Enjoy Your Money: Simple Saving Tricks

How good a saver are you? Is it easy to save money or is it tough? Here is the first simple saving trick to get you started. There are 5 simple saving tricks, each month from now until the end of the school year, we will add another.

Trick #1: Four banks, not one! Use 4 little banks. Label each bank with the way you'll use the money. SAVE, SPEND, INVEST and GIVE.

1. A spending bank for money to be used soon on everyday things.
2. A saving bank for money to be used later on large items.
3. An investing bank for money that will be used several years from now.
4. A giving bank for gifts and to help others.

Presidential Pets

U.S. presidents and their families have typically liked animals. Creatures from mice to bears have made a home at the White House and its grounds. The following list of presidential pets is not complete, however, as no doubt many a presidential cat or cow passed through without much public notice.

George Washington: Polly the parrot, 36 hounds, and horses.

Thomas Jefferson: A mockingbird and two bear cubs (from Lewis & Clark).

Abraham Lincoln: Jack the turkey, goats named Nanny and Nanko, ponies, cats, dogs, pigs and a white rabbit.

George H.W. Bush: Millie, a Springer spaniel; Ranger, one of Millie's pups.

Bill Clinton: Socks the cat; Buddy, a chocolate Labrador retriever.

George W. Bush: Spot the Springer Spaniel, Barney the Scottish terrier, and India ("Wille") the cat. In 2004, the President gave his wife, Laura, a Scottish terrier puppy named Miss Beazley for the First Lady's birthday.

Barack Obama: Bo and Sunny, both Portuguese water dogs.
