Presidential Pets

U.S. presidents and their families have typically liked animals. Creatures from mice to bears have made a home at the White House and its grounds. The following list of presidential pets is not complete, however, as no doubt many a presidential cat or cow passed through without much public notice.

George Washington: Polly the parrot, 36 hounds, and horses.

Thomas Jefferson: A mockingbird and two bear cubs (from Lewis & Clark).

Abraham Lincoln: Jack the turkey, goats named Nanny and Nanko, ponies, cats, dogs, pigs and a white rabbit.

George H.W. Bush: Millie, a Springer spaniel; Ranger, one of Millie's pups.

Bill Clinton: Socks the cat; Buddy, a chocolate Labrador retriever.

George W. Bush: Spot the Springer Spaniel, Barney the Scottish terrier, and India ("Wille") the cat. In 2004, the President gave his wife, Laura, a Scottish terrier puppy named Miss Beazley for the First Lady's birthday.

Barack Obama: Bo and Sunny, both Portuguese water dogs.
